New Targets for Clinical Trials in the European Union

Author(s) Cheryl Barton

Key Takeaways

- The EU aims to increase multinational clinical trials by 100 annually and improve patient recruitment speed by 2030.
- The ACT EU initiative supports clinical research by providing trial maps, guidance, and assistance for multinational trials.
- Complementary initiatives like CTR Collaborate and COMBINE aim to harmonize procedures and streamline clinical trial processes.
- The pharmaceutical industry can leverage these changes to expand multinational trials and accelerate market access in the EU.
